Share All sharing options for: A deeper look at Daniel Poncedeleon No-hitters don't matter as much as they used to. This makes the common narrative around Daniel Poncedeleon's seven-no-hit-inning debut particularly difficult to avoid. The percent of at-bats with a ball in play has fallen stupendously since the early 1900s.

I really enjoyed this in depth look into the book of Daniel. The author not only gives you the scripture to study but gives you points in which to connect it to real life, alternate scripture & different view points. I love how he causes you to look deeper & at competing theories for what God is really being said.
