The default master installer code for that panel is 9999, and the default regular installer code is 8888. I'm sure ADT changes them though. I'm curious if your contract with ADT prohibits you from altering the programming, or allows them to charge you a fee to "audit" your changes.

Is there a way to reset the installer code on ADT control ...
If the installer did not lockout the panel then this will reset it to factory. After reviewing your pictures, it appears you have a DSC PC5010 which is an older. The default installer code on that system is 5010 and the process to enter the. ADT doesn't install DSC equipment, but we can sometimes use existing.
