Chimera is a rehash of the Nightlife books with two tiny differences: the story is told from the perspective of the older brother this time, and the setting is urban scifi instead of urban fantasy. Aside from those details, Stefan and Michael "Lukas-oops-not-really" Korsak is Niko and Cal Leandros all over again, up to and including the older brothers' identical bodyguard jobs, the snarky younger-brother-vibe humor, and the being constantly on the run.

Chimera (The Korsak Brothers #1) by Rob Thurman

'Chimera' transcends genre fiction and is a welcome gem that I am hoping becomes a gateway for genre fiction more readers. More to the point, even though this book was originally written as a standalone, I would happily devour any follow-up to 'Chimera' if Rob Thurman would only write it.
