Earth Air Fire And Custard

Earth, Air, Fire, and Custard was everything I said about the prior two in the series, multiplied. It was funnier, more confusing, more clever, and more ridiculous. It also tied up some questions from the prior two books nicely, explained some things I just had to accept with a shrug earlier. Very fun.

In Zarathan, the setting of The Balanced Sword, there are said to be five elements — Air, Earth, Fire, Water, and Spirit — with magic based on Spirit being particularly rare and powerful. In Earth, Air, Fire and Custard, the fifth element is, as you might guess, custard. Or a substance virtually indistinguishable from custard, except for its magical properties.

Element #5 - TV Tropes

Element #5: In Earth, Air, Fire and Custard, the fifth element is, as you might guess, custard. Or a substance virtually indistinguishable from custard, except for its magical properties. It was created by the powerful wizard, Professor Van Spee.
