Flush Virginia Woolf

Flush: A Biography, an imaginative biography of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's cocker spaniel, is a cross-genre blend of fiction and nonfiction by Virginia Woolf published in 1933. Written after the completion of her emotionally draining The Waves , the work returned Woolf to the imaginative consideration of English history that she had begun in Orlando: A Biography , and to which she would return in Between the Acts .

Flush: A Biography - Wikipedia

Woolf has chosen just the right narrative method for this pseudo-biography of Elizabeth Barret Browning's red spaniel Flush. She uses third person technique--that is the "biographer" speaking--but the biographer third person gets close in to the perspective of the dog. By this method she can include both a human perspective and the dog's perspective.
