Amid Generation X's grief, Baby Boomers downplayed the news as irrelevant. In many ways, Generation X was told that their own voice was irrelevant, and not as important as their elders. Andy Rooney, for example, went on 60 Minutes to make a point of talking about more important people who had died that week. Daring to compare Cobain to figures such as John Lennon was seen as blasphemy. The message, whether intentional or not, came through to Generation X loud and clear: "You don't
