Hellbent for Cooking: The Heavy Metal Cookbook: Giroux ...
Some 8 years later, Hellbent for Cooking is still the best cookbook in the house. Very well written, not just a gimmick, lots of variety of recipes (down to some pretty gnarly and boring ones). Beautifully laid out, quality photos, good commentary. Great for anyone, but obviously especially for the (heavy/extreme) metal enthusiast.

But these guys are nothing compared to the heavy metal home cooks who contributed the recipes for Annick Giroux's new cookbook Hellbent For Cooking. As the editor and publisher of Morbid Tales, underground Canadian metal fanzine Giroux has two passions. The first is obviously heavy metal (in all of its forms) and the second, and more unlikely, is cooking.
