How I Became A Nun

César Aira's How I Became a Nun is a humorous jaunt through the life of a 6 year old boy—or girl—also named César Aira as s/he learns the magic of blending fact and fantasy to better understand the undercurrent of magic pulsing through plain reality. Through a lonely pilgrimage of childhood, César experiments with fic

How I Became a Nun by César Aira - Goodreads

"How I Became a Nun" is a brilliant book that I still remember vividly weeks after having finished it, emotionally dead on, plotted with something between childhood ineptitude and genius and all narrated by the most obnoxious and engagingly precocious child I have yet encountered in fiction.

How I Became a Nun: Aira, César, Andrews, Chris ...

How I Became a Nun by César Aira is a novel set in Rosario, Argentina, about a precocious six-year-old named César Aira. César the character, who claims to be, alternately, a boy and a girl, has a hyper-developed sense of reality, a plethora of hang-ups, and a casual relationship with the truth. Contrary to what the name suggests, it is not a story of religious awakening, and begins and ends in the same year of the life of the narrator. The Spanish version was first published in 1993 ...
