Joe College by Tom Perrotta, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Populated by a vividly drawn cast of characters—Yale students and lunch truck drivers alike— Joe College evokes two radically different worlds through Tom Perrotta's distinctive combination of humor, sweetness, and telling detail. Joe College is a serious comic novel about love, higher education, and food service, a uniquely American story about the mistakes we sometimes make and the illusions we have to shed on the way to finding our place in the world.

Joe College - Tom Perrotta

Tom Perrotta's novel Joe College is an interesting examination of how adolescents and young adults enact different social roles. Danny is the son of a blue collar lunch truck driver from New Jersey. Danny also happens to attend Yale where he works in a university dining hall. These two environments help to show the contrast in the world of Yale.

Joe College by Tom Perrotta - Goodreads

Having penned Election, a great novel of high-school manners, Tom Perrotta gives us Joe College, a great novel about college mores. In 1982, one Yale junior struggles with George Eliot, dorm blanket bingo, dining-hall dish-line duty, a massive crush on a girl in love with his favorite prof, daily cards and calls from a girl back home in New Jersey, and a lush profusion of authentically individual yet instantly recognizable undergrad eccentrics.

Detailed Review Summary of Joe College by Tom Perrotta

JOE COLLEGE. by Tom Perrotta · RELEASE DATE: Sept. 1, 2000. Another perfectly pitched, subversively hilarious chronicle of prolonged adolescence from the author of, most recently, Election (1998). If Salinger's Holden Caulfield had hit the books a bit more assiduously, and gotten out more, he might have turned into this story's engaging (if not fully engaged) narrator and protagonist Danny: an overachieving Italian-American kid from (Perrotta's chosen fictional turf) suburban New ...

Joe College Quotes by Tom Perrotta - Goodreads

In Tom Perrotta's new novel, Joe College, Danny juggles his working class background with the social and academic demands of Yale. The story, set in 1982, alternates between the rarified air of New Haven and the grimy roads of industrial New Jersey, where Danny's father grinds out his days in a lunch truck nicknamed the Roach Coach.
