We pay for beauty treatments (hair, skin, nails) to help us feel good on the outside. We spend money on entertainment for our minds to enjoy. And some of us even pay more for healthy food, supplements, and gym memberships to keep our bodies in shape. All of these things are good and important, but why is it that we won’t pay for a life coach?

The first part of the trail goes upward, but then it evens out and after that it is pretty even and not difficult at all. The views are good all the way, very panoramic as advertised, even if a little bit the same all the way. Perhaps we did not get far enough to where the views change. This panorama captures essentially all the views we saw.
