LIVING WITH UNCERTAINTY. LIVING WITH UNCERTAINTY. Every choice we make is set against a background of massive ignorance about our past, our future, our circumstances, and ourselves. Philosophers are divided on the moral significance of such ignorance. Some say that it has a direct impact on how we ought to behave—the question of what our moral obligations are; others deny this, claiming that it only affects how we ought to be judged in light of the behavior in which we choose to engage – the question of what responsibility we bear ...
