Native Foreigners Jewish Polish Poetry

This is the context in which the poems presented in Aniela and Jerzy Gregorek's Native Foreigners: Polish-Jewish Poetry Between the World Wars were rescued and brilliantly translated from the original Polish. Among the fourteen poems presented here, the fiercely precise Nothing New (Nihil Novi) by Szlengel is especially moving, as are the powerful, pre-Holocaust meditation Generation (Pokolenie) by Percec Nowomiast; Mieczyslaw Braun's darkly wrought jewel, Refugees& (Uchodzczy); the beautiful ...
