Pathfinder Rogue Build Guide

All but the strangest Rogue builds depend on Weapon Finesse or ranged weapons, so make sure to put a lot of resources into dexterity. Con: Essential for Fortitude saves and hit points, especially if you're in melee. Int: Essential for skill ranks. 8+ seems like a lot, but it's nowhere near enough. Wis: Essential for Will saves.

RPGBOT - Pathfinder - The Rogue Handbook

If constructed properly, the designers should have given a rogue 10+Int skill points per level. Maybe even 12+Int because, after all, skills really don't dominate most Pathfinder games anyway. In Combat Play: The main reason why you would play a rogue from a combat perspective is for sneak attack damage. The best way to maximize sneak attack damage in the first round of combat is to target an enemy whose dexterity is denied (most likely flat-footed) and without concealment to unload a ...

A Guide to the Rogue (Pathfinder)—Skills, Combat Styles ...

The Rogue is a staple of DnD-style games, but as Pathfinder has grown, the vanilla Rogue has been left behind in a lot of ways. In the core rulebook, the Rogue was the unmatched master of stealth, skill, and surprise attacks. Over time these masteries have been eclipsed by other classes which overcame a lot of the issues which Rogues faces in core.
