When Guitarist magazine was granted a rare interview with slide guitar supremo Ry Cooder recently, we couldn't resist asking for his tips for slide guitarists. Ry's new album Election Special is a masterclass in gritty yet exquisitely phrased slide guitar. But despite being responsible for some of the finest slide work on record, including the legendary Rolling Stones track Sister Morphine, Ry denied having any rules of thumb to pass onto other players. He did have this to offer, though:
