Sixth Oriental Monarchy Rawlinson George

An invaluable classic work by the famous British historian and "professor of ancient history" at Oxford in 1861, George Rawlinson. Rawlinson summarized "The Sixth Monarchy" with this statement..."It seemed to the writer that the picture of the world during the Roman period, commonly put before students in "Histories of Rome", was defective, not to say false, in its omission to recognize the real position of Parthia during the three most interesting centuries of that period, as a counterpoise ...
