Suddenly, a man with dark sunglasses swaggered into the room, exuding menace like an expensive cologne. Inky hair, head-to-toe black, and a mean SOB scowl all screamed, "Don't fuck with me. " Was he one of Villarreal's men? Kata snatched up her phone to dial 911. "Put it down," he growled, his hard stare moving to Ben, who cupped ...

"Ben told me what you're into, but I'm never going to be the meek little woman. That should have been clear in Vegas. I won't ask anyone's permission to do what I want, Hunter, especially not to go to work. One incident won't keep me from a job I love. As soon as I get some sleep, I'll be fine. I get that you're worried about me.

Shayla Black's Wicked Lovers series is overall very good, but I just didn't like this one. The best parts were the cameos by previous characters in the series and the excellent narrator. The story itself was so unbelievable that I found myself rolling my eyes a lot and finally listening on double speed just to get through it so I could say I have listened to them all.
