This short story/novella was penned from Alex Kennedy's perspective during the events of Megan Hart's erotic novel, "Tempted." I appreciated the eye of insight from Alex's perspective, and the steamy scenes were well written, but in the end, for me, it still felt like a few things were missing development wise.

Alex Kennedy is one of my favorite book characters. Megan's writing makes him seem so very real that I feel like I could run into him on the street or at a party. Actually, every Megan Hart novel I've read evokes a reality that makes the reader feel the events in her books truly happened. This novella is best read after "Tempted."
