Black men suffer more than any other racial or sexual group in America. They have the lowest standards of living, shortest life expectancies, highest incarceration rates and suffer other sociological and economic ailments. However, for the past 50 years virtually NO PROGRESS has been made in improving the lives of black men.

The book is subtitled, "A Black Man's Guide to Survival." Why focus on men? The tools in this book can be used by anyone, but it's geared toward men of color, and the reasons why are obvious. I don't think I need to list the names of all the black men that have died in confrontations with police recently.
