Tony Schumacher (British author) - Wikipedia

I listened to The Darkest Hour during March of 2016 but decided to wait to rate and review it due to mixed feelings on my part. My issue was whether to rate it 4 stars or 5. The novel is set in Great Britain in 1946 after Germany won WWII. The book is an excellent suspense thriller.

The Darkest Hour (Audiobook) by Tony Schumacher | Audible.com

Throughout this well-written sequel to "The Darkest Hour", Tony Schumacher succeeds in making every character, from an SS Major in charge of removal of Jews from a conquered Britain, to a former British war hero cop turned collaborator, to a rogue, murderous American spy, by turns sympathetic and repulsive. Action? Check. Intrigue? In spades. Drama?

The Darkest Hour by Tony Schumacher (2014, Hardcover) for ...

An excellent page turner set in Nazi occupied Britain. Using a "what - if" premise of England losing it's battle with Nazi Germany, the Darkest Hour follows a war hero who is now working for the Reich as a cop responsible for rounding up Jews and putting them on trains to the continent. He believes they are going to be farm laborers and factory workers - or at least that is what he keeps telling himself.
