NOTES: The Intelligent Asset Allocator by William Bernstein

A second major lesson of The Intelligent Asset Allocator is the concept of the "efficient frontier." The idea is that, for any given period, there are a number of efficient portfolios, each of which provides the highest return for a given level of volatility, or the lowest volatility for a given level of return.

Review: The Intelligent Asset Allocator — Oblivious Investor

Asset allocation has indeed been along since well before MPT — Benjamin Graham covered it quite simply in "The Intelligent Investor" (for securities only, since that's what he knew about — not about other asset classes such as real estate, commodities, &c), recommending 50/50 stocks/bonds as typical, stretching up or down within 25/75 - 75/25 if/when you judge the two asset classes over/under priced wrt each other, but not beyond those boundaries.
