The Shakespeare wars : clashing scholars, public fiascoes ...

The Shakespeare Wars: Clashing Scholars, Public Fiascos, Palace Coups is a 2006 book by Ron Rosenbaum. Rosenbaum's account of the genesis of this book is that it arose out of his need to cure the depression into which he fell in the wake of the research and writing he did for Explaining Hitler: The Search for the Origins of His Evil. That book related his search among contemporary historians for an adequate explanation for Hitler's evil—and the underlying tension between "exceptionalist ...

The Shakespeare Wars - Wikipedia

The second puzzle is which version of a Shakespeare play is the "correct" one; would it be one of the early quartos or the Folio. Scholars have long disagreed on these and other points and Ron Rosenbaum has followed these scholarly wars and help the readers come to a better understanding of Shakespeare. This is not a biography.
