The text of History Odyssey is written to student, so most middle school kids should be able to work fairly independently. Because we do history and science as a family and because I wanted to be able to tweak the assignments to fit our six weeks on/one week off schedule , I didn't have my kids work through the text on their own.

2. A Way of Communicating How We Feel. Music also helps people communicate how they feel inside when they just can't find the words to say it. Sometimes, in our lives, it is difficult to say how we feel to other people, but with music we find the words that are missing and the messages that we are trying to tell people.
